

Multiple communication channels approach

Community Engagement and Accountability (CEA) is a dynamic and planned process that employs a variety of communication approaches to improve people's knowledge, motivate action, promote participation and create an enabling environment for change.

ICRC

International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies